

Terms of Service

1. General provisions

These Terms of Service (hereinafter: “ToS”) set out the conditions for using the services provided by MC-ServerLists.com, as well as the rights and obligations of the Provider and the User.

The ToS applies to the mc-serverlists.com website operated by Erdei Olivér Márton EV (hereinafter: “Provider”) and to the services connected to it (hereinafter collectively: “Services”).

By using the Services, the User acknowledges and accepts the conditions set out in these ToS and undertakes to comply with them.

These ToS define the general conditions for using the Services, the basic rules of the legal relationship between the Provider and the User, and the rights and obligations connected with the use of the Services.

These ToS do not cover the activities and agreements of Users among themselves, or the content they create or share while using the Services, except where these directly affect the use of the Services provided by the Provider.

mc-serverlists.com is committed to protecting the personal data of its users, customers and the users of its websites and services. This privacy statement details what personal data we collect, share and use. If you have any questions about this privacy notice or its contents, please contact us at the e-mail address given above.

3. Terms of use

3.1 The online services and community platforms of MC-ServerLists.com (hereinafter: MC-ServerLists) may be used with parental permission under the age of 16, and at one's own responsibility from the age of 16.

3.1.1 However, the age rules of the community platforms we use may override the age rules we have set.

3.2 The online services of MC-ServerLists may only be used if no illegal software or applications are in use and acceptable language is used.

3.3 The rules in force on the online services and community platforms of MC-ServerLists apply to users in every case.

3.3.1 However, different penalties apply to customers for rule violations committed within our different services and community platforms.

4. Obligations of the User

4.1 All data found within the services and community platforms of MC-ServerLists is the property of MC-ServerLists. Passing this data on to a third party is prohibited, and its use, handling or any other application may only take place through official written means and only with the owner's permission.

4.2 It is entirely the User's own responsibility how they keep their login details away from other users, and how they store their data so that they do not forget it.

4.2.1 Our website suggests several options for storing and encrypting login details. The User must not give their password to anyone. The User must use a secure password that is hard to guess.

4.3 The User is obliged to supervise their own computer so that the device does not come into the possession of another person and an unauthorised person cannot thereby access the services provided by MC-ServerLists.

4.3.1 The User must not hand over their user account within the MC-ServerLists services to another person.

4.4 When registering, the User is obliged to comply with the rules in force within the services and community platforms of MC-ServerLists.

4.5 The User is obliged to report any error or problem found within the services and community platforms of MC-ServerLists, and to keep it confidential until the error or problem has been fixed.

5. Use of the service

5.1 To use the services operated by MC-ServerLists, the User must register. After successful registration, the User automatically accepts the policies that apply to users (Privacy Policy, Terms of Service).

5.2 The registration must be completed by the person who will use the services provided by MC-ServerLists.

5.3 After successful registration, the User is entitled to log in to the MC-ServerLists website, where they can change their login details and perform the following actions:

- creating and editing a server,
- managing blog posts related to the server,
- voting for a server,
- adding events.

6. In-service purchases

6.1 MC-ServerLists may change the prices of the purchasable services. We are obliged to provide information about this.

6.2 Use of the service is free of charge for users.

6.2.1 However, certain services are not free of charge; users can use these services on the MC-ServerLists website.

6.3 The services available within MC-ServerLists can only be used with Points, and Points can only be purchased on the official MC-ServerLists website.

6.4 Points can only be purchased through the MC-ServerLists website. Points purchased on other websites cannot be used within our services! This also applies to coupon codes!

6.5 On the MC-ServerLists websites, Stripe's service is used to process transactions, and only this can be used!

6.6 A refund after a purchase must be arranged through MC-ServerLists.

6.6.1 If the User does not follow the method we have specified to obtain a refund, their user account will be permanently suspended, the product(s) received for the earlier purchase will be revoked, and this agreement will also be terminated.

7. Complications arising from breach of obligations

7.1 MC-ServerLists does not accept liability for damage arising from users' breaches of their obligations.

7.2 MC-ServerLists does not accept liability for damage that one user has caused to another user. In this case, MC-ServerLists may withdraw the right to use our services from the user who caused the damage.

8. Data management

8.1 MC-ServerLists does everything to prevent the possibility of data loss; however, if data loss nevertheless occurs, MC-ServerLists cannot be held directly responsible for it.

8.2 MC-ServerLists may not transmit or pass on data to anyone other than the third parties specified in the Privacy Policy; an exception is an official request based on law, in which case the provision of data is mandatory.

8.3 In the event of any serious data loss, MC-ServerLists is obliged to inform users within 72 hours by means of a statement that precisely documents the events related to the data loss and further information.

8.3.1 MC-ServerLists is not obliged to compensate users if the data loss was caused by a problem that did not originate with it.

9. Termination of the agreement

9.1 The agreement is valid for an unlimited period until it is fully terminated.

9.2 Either party may terminate the agreement at any time.

9.3 Breach of any provision of the agreement results in a ban from all services, and the validity of the agreement also ceases thereby.

9.4 The end of the MC-ServerLists agreement also occurs if the service itself is no longer available.

9.5 After the termination of the general agreement of MC-ServerLists, it cannot be obliged to provide any kind of refund. Furthermore, MC-ServerLists can no longer be held liable retroactively.

10. Information on compensation

10.1 The staff of MC-ServerLists are obliged to help users if, due to an unknown error, the user has not received a purchased service.

10.2 MC-ServerLists is obliged to compensate users if purchased items and services are lost due to an unknown error.

10.3 MC-ServerLists is obliged to preserve the safety of its customers from persons who could cause harm while the services are being used.

11. Complaint handling and contact

11.1 Users are entitled to report their comments and complaints about the services and operation of MC-ServerLists, or about these Terms of Service, electronically.

Contact and customer service e-mail address: info@mc-serverlists.com

MC-ServerLists will examine the complaints received as soon as possible and will reply electronically within the shortest possible time.

12. Further provisions

12.1 MC-ServerLists may claim the right to change the current policies and further documents at any time.

12.2 MC-ServerLists is obliged to notify users 7 days in advance that the current agreements will be updated in any form.

12.3 MC-ServerLists is obliged to continuously develop its services and to expand and modernise them with new features.
